

I'd Like to Thank Our Long-Term Members

Through almost 100 years and major worldwide events — including the Great Depression, World War II, the Korean, Vietnam and Persian Gulf Wars, 9/11, the Great Recession and the COVID-19 pandemic — our association has endured. Even with today's economic uncertainty and changes in the industry, Business Technology Association (BTA) members are growing, finding new revenue streams and succeeding.

Founded in 1926, BTA's mission has been to help its member dealerships improve through the association's various offerings. I think our success is evident when you look at how long so many dealerships have been members of the association and continue to be active today. I would like to recognize and thank our longest-term current dealer members, listed by decades and in the order they joined the association (oldest to newest):
